

Starting your own business?

Anybody who told you that starting your own business was going to be a breeze was lying ... in reality, starting your own business is almost always more of a headache than working for someone else.

Fact is, you need help from somebody who knows what it's all about.

That's why so many new companies choose Neotrope® to help them survive the headaches. We can develop a compelling brand identity, build an effective online presence, and get the word out about your products and services.

Since 1983, Neotrope has provided real solutions with realistic, affordable pricing:

- Graphic Design and Business Identity
- Catalog and Periodical Design
- Web Design, Development and Hosting
- Web Promotion and Keyword Marketing
- E-Commerce and Merchant Services
- Content/Copy Writing and Editing
- Press Release Writing and Distribution
- Public and Media Relations
- Audio/Video Suite and Sound Design
